

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

PUBLIC POLICY
MAKING AND
ANALYSIS

Better analysis
Better public decisions
Better society
Interdisciplinary short cycle programs in public policy making and analysis

Participants from Serbian partner institutions

Leiden 25 – 30 May 2019

List of Participants from Serbian partner institutions

P1 University of Novi Sad

1. Atanasijevic Jasna, Assistant Professor at the Department of Mathematics and Informatics of the Faculty of Sciences, jasna.atanasijevic@dmi.uns.ac.rs
2. Luzanin Zorana, Full Professor at the Department of Mathematics and Informatics of the Faculty of Sciences, zorana@dmi.uns.ac.rs
3. Tepavcevic Andreja, Full Professor at the Department of Mathematics and Informatics of the Faculty of Sciences, andreja@dmi.uns.ac.rs
4. Vidakovic Jovana, Assistant Professor at the Department of Mathematics and Informatics of the Faculty of Sciences, jovana@uns.ac.rs

P2 University of Belgrade

5. Ejodus Filip, Associate Professor at the Faculty of Political Science, filip.ejodus@fpn.bg.ac.rs
6. Mihic Marko, Full Professor at the Faculty of Organizational Sciences, mihicm@gmail.com
7. Radulovic Branko, Associate Professor at the Faculty of Law, bradulovic@ius.bg.ac.rs, bradulovic@outlook.com
8. Vukovic Danilo, Associate Professor of Sociology at the Faculty of Law, danilo.vukovic@ius.bg.ac.rs

P3 University of Nis

9. Dimovski Darko, Associate professor at the Faculty of Law, darko.dimovski@yahoo.com
10. Mojasevic Aleksandar, Associate Professor at the Faculty of Law, mojasevic77@gmail.com

P7 Public Policy Secretariat Government of the Republic of Serbia

11. Kekic Ninoslav, Assistant Director in the Public Policy Secretariat of the Republic of Serbia (Sector for Quality Assurance of Public Policies), ninoslav.kekic@rsjp.gov.rs
12. Todorovic Jelena, Expert Advisor in the Public Policy Secretariat of the Government of Serbia (PPS), Sector for Planning Support, Public Policy Coordination and Monitoring, jelena.todorovic@rsjp.gov.rs

P8 Foundation for the Advancement of Economics

13. Vuksanovic Nemanja, reasearcher at FREN and Teaching Assistant at Faculty of Economics University of Belgrade, vuksanovic@ekof.bg.ac.rs

P10 SeConS Development Initiative Group

14. Vukovic Olivera, Executive Director, olivera.vukovic@secons.net

Short Biographies of Participants from Serbian partner institutions

P1 – University of Novi Sad

Atanasijevic Jasna, (1979) is Assistant Professor at the Department of Mathematics and Informatics of the Faculty of Sciences, University of Novi Sad where she teaches finance and mathematical introduction to economics. She is coordinator of Erasmus plus KA2 project aiming to develop curricula in policymaking and policy analysis at three largest universities in Serbia with a help from renowned EU partners. She currently runs a research project in the area of big data analytics and ML and works as a consultant in the field of competitiveness and SME financing.

She has PhD in applied economics from University Paris 1 Sorbonne, master degree in finance from the University Toulouse 1 and bachelor's degree from the Faculty of economics, University of Belgrade.

From 2014 to 2018 she served as a director of Public policy secretariat of the Government of Serbia. She was in charge of the establishing of the new institution in the center of government promoting new practices of planning in public administration including result-based management, evidence based policy making and regulatory impact assessment. From 2009 to 2014, she was a chief economist of Hypo Alpe-Adria bank in Serbia. Before that, she worked as a researcher in a think tank as well as a consultant in the area of finance and economic policy.

She authored several studies and reports in applied economics and finance, some of them published in journals such as Comparative Economic Studies Journal and Eastern European Economics Journal. She is a member of the presidency of the Serbian Association of Economists (SAE), editorial board of the SAE Journal of business economics and management, advisory board of the Foundation for the advancement of economic science, advisory board of the Center for the applied statistics of the University of Novi Sad and the Serbian chapter of the Club of Rome.

Luzanin Zorana, Ph.D. Mathematics (1997), is full professor at the Faculty of Science, University of Novi Sad (since 2007) .She has been involved in more than 25 research and development projects, projects involving cooperation with industry and projects to increase higher education capacity. Ten of the aforementioned are Structural Measures-Governance Reform projects. At least 15 years of relevant work experience in analytics and data collection and processing in projects (ERASMUS 573820-2016 Development and Implementation of System for Performance Evaluation for Serbian HEIs and System; TEMPUS SM, 561868-2015, Introduction of part-time and short cycle studies in Serbia; TEMPUS SM 544093-2013 Restructuring of doctoral studies in Serbia; TEMPUS SM 530550-2012-2012 Towards Sustainable and Equitable Financing of Higher Education in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro and Serbia; TEMPUS JP 511140-2010 Master programme in Applied Statistics; TEMPUS JP 158926 – 2009 Governance and Management Reform in Higher Education in Serbia; TEMPUS SM 145677-2008 Internal Quality Assurance at Serbian Universities)

Over 27 years of experience in teaching/tutoring a great number of students with different interests and ages. Organizing and teaching courses in bachelor, master's and doctoral studies. More than ten years of experience in development and realization of courses for students in wide range of topics whose emphasis was on applying statistical analyses in their field of study or work (Master programme of Applied Mathematics: Mathematical models in economy, Econometrics (Faculty of Science, University of Novi Sad, 2005-present); Master programme of Applied Statistics: Bayesian statistics, Linear models, Longitudinal Data Analysis (University of Novi Sad, 2012-present);)

Over 10 years of experience in managing and evidence based policy making> State Secretary. Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development (March, 2015- August, 2016); Assistant Minister, Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development (May, 2014- March, 2015); Member of HERE team (Higher Education Reform Expert) (2010-2015); Member of the National Education Council of the Republic of Serbia (2011-2014); Chief of Quality Assessment Board of the University of Novi Sad (2010-present); Chief of University Centre of Applied Statistics, University of Novi Sad (2010-present))

Tepavcevic Andreja, is Full Professor at Department of Mathematics and Informatics, Faculty of Sciences, University of Novi Sad, Serbia from 2003.

- Head of Applied Algebra Chair
- Head of University council for mathematics and natural sciences
- Member of the Senate of University of Novi Sad

Education :

-1987 B.Sc. in Computer Science, 1988 B.Sc. in Mathematics, 1990 M.Sc. in Mathematics, 1993 Ph.D. in Mathematics

- invited lectures in English at more than 20 universities (TU Dresden, Germany; TU Wien, Austria; Bolyai Institute Szeged, Hungary; Matej Bel University Banska Bystrica, Slovakia; LUT Finland; University of Oviedo, Spain; University of Leipzig, Germany; University of Zielona Gora, Poland; St Petersburg State University, Russia; Konan University, Kobe, Japan; Università degli Studi del Sannio, Benevento, Italy; University of Ljubljana, Slovenia; Indian Statistical Institute, Kolkata, India; Mathematical institute Kosice, Slovakia; University Gadjah Mada, Yogyakarta, University of Plovdiv, Bulgaria etc.)

-thought courses at bachelor, master and Ph.D level at University of Verona, Italy; University of Oviedo, Spain; LUT Finland, University UNIPA, Manokwari, West Papua, Indonesia), in giving tutorials at conferences,

-writing more than 100 research papers for international journals and books in English.

- spoken and written Spanish language skills

-participated in several Tempus and Erasmus + projects

-Supervised five PhD, four master and five graduate thesis and was an external adviser of two doctoral thesis and one master thesis defended abroad.

- Giving LLL courses in Biostatistics 2015.

Vidakovic Jovana was born in Novi Sad, Serbia in 1975. She received her bachelor and Mr (2 years) degrees from the Faculty of Sciences, University of Novi Sad, and Ph.D. degree from Faculty of Technical Sciences, University of Novi Sad. Currently, she works as an Assistant Professor at the Department of Mathematics and Informatics, Faculty of Sciences, University of Novi Sad, where she lectures in several Computer Sciences and Informatics courses: Databases, Introduction to Python, Software engineering for Database Systems. Her research interests are related to Database Systems and Information Systems. She has published more than 20 scientific papers in international journals and conferences. She is co-author of one book and one workbook. She has participated in several national and international projects. She is an editorial assistant of the international journal Computer Science and Information Systems.

P2 – University of Belgrade

Ejduk Filip is an Associate Professor at the Faculty of Political Science, University of Belgrade. In his research he investigates management of (in)security during crises and beyond borders with a geographic focus on the Western Balkans, European Union, Middle East and Horn of Africa. Since 2012, he has served as the (co)Editor of Journal of Regional Security. He has been closely involved with policy community as a board member of the Belgrade Centre for Security Policy, academic coordinator at the Belgrade Security Forum and co-chair of the Regional Stability in South East Europe Study Group at the PfP Consortium of Defence Academies and Security Studies Institutes.

Mihic Marko is Full Professor at the Faculty of Organizational Sciences, University of Belgrade. He holds a B.Sc. degree in the field of Management and M.Sc. and Ph.D. degrees in the area of Strategic Management and Project Management. Presently, he is engaged as a Head of Department of Management at the Faculty of Organizational Sciences and Visiting Professor at the Faculty of Administration, University of Ljubljana.

His research interest includes Management, Project Management, Strategic Management and Change Management. He has authored and co-authored numerous publications at national and international conferences and journals. He has published 7 books and over 180 peer-reviewed papers. As an expert consultant, he has worked extensively for the Serbian government institutions, as well as for several leading national and multinational companies and investors in Serbia.

He is member of Project Management Institute (USA), Chartered Management Institute (UK) and Academy of Management (USA); founder of Centre for Professional Certification of Managers at the Faculty of Organizational Sciences and vice president of Serbian Management Centre.

Radulović Branko is currently an Associate Professor of Economics and Economic Analysis of Law. He graduated at the Faculty of Economics in Belgrade and holds a master's degree in International Economics (with distinction) from the University of Birmingham and a PhD in Economics analysis of Law and Institutional Economics from Collegio Carlo Alberto, University of Turin. He was also a visiting scholar at the Cornell Law School. His professional interests include the economic analysis of law, public policy analysis, international economics and applied econometrics. He has nearly 20 years of experience and prior to his current positions he served as a private and financial sector specialist with the World Bank and as a research fellow in several Serbian think-tanks. He was a visiting lecturer at the University of Roma Tre and University of Sarajevo. For the past ten years, he has led or provided key inputs to several drafting committees responsible for business-related laws including the new Bankruptcy Law and has published and presented papers at several academic and policy-oriented conferences.

•Radović, Vuk and Radulović Branko "Prearranged Reorganization Plans in Serbia - Form over Substance", European Business Organization Law Review, forthcoming 2018

•Krstić, Gorana and Radulović Branko 2015. "The Shadow Economy in the Business and Entrepreneurial Sectors." In Formalizing the Shadow Economy in Serbia, Policy Measures and Growth Effects, eds. Gorana Krstić and Friedrich Schneider, 77-107, Springer International Publishing. https://doi.org/10.1007/978-3-319-13437-6_6

•Goldberg Itzhak, Radulović, Branko, Schafer Mark, 2005 "Productivity, Ownership and the Investment Climate: International Lessons for Priorities in Serbia", World Bank Policy Research Working Paper Series 3681. <https://doi.org/10.1596/1813-9450-3681>

- Radulović, Branko, 2015. “Unapred pripremljeni planovi reorganizacije i problem negativne selekcije”, Anali Pravnog fakulteta Univerziteta u Beogradu, Vol.63 (1): 151-168, doi:10.5937/AnaliPFB1501151R

- Radulović, Branko, Stefan Dragutinović. 2015 “Efficiency of local self-governments in Serbia: an SFA approach”, Industrija, Vol. 43(3): 123-142, doi: 10.5937/industrija43-8846

Vukovic Danilo is associate professor of sociology at the Faculty of Law, University of Belgrade. His fields of interest are empirical sociology of law (legal culture, lawmaking process, and the rule of law), as well as social policy in the post-socialist context. He has conducted researches on social accountability (Serbia and Cambodia, 2014 and 2015), access to justice and free legal aid (Serbia, 2012), lawmaking and policymaking process (Serbia, 2012 and 2013), legal profession (Serbia, Croatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina) as well as numerous policy-oriented researches, mainly in the fields of social policy and civil society in the area of South East Europe. He is the Head of Center for Socio-Legal Studies and the Faculty of Law. Before joining the University of Belgrade, he worked in private research and international development sector, and he remains interested in development issues.

P3 – University of Nis

Dimovski Darko is an associate professor at the Faculty of Law, University of Niš, teaching in the field of Criminal Law. He has defended the doctoral dissertation titled Criminological aspect of murder at the Faculty of Law, University of Niš. As an academic coach and trainer of the moot court team of the Faculty of Law in Nis, Dr Dimovski and his team have won several prestigious competitions in a simulation before the European Court of Human Rights. Dr Dimovski has been engaged in several projects in the area of providing free legal aid to socially vulnerable groups. Accordingly, he is the Administrator of the Legal Clinic at the Faculty of Law, University of Niš, and one of the creators of the so-called Mobile legal clinics. Dr Dimovski has participated in many international and national scientific conferences, and published several monographs and over 130 scientific articles in the field of criminology, penology, criminal law, victimology and human rights. He is a member of the editorial board of the following scientific journals: Themes, Social thought, Peščanik.

Mojasevic Aleksandar is Associate Professor of Economics, Economic Analysis of Law, Antitrust Law, Regulation of Financial Markets, Financial Institutions, Economics of Public Sector, Economics of European Integration and Economic Analysis of Safety.

Name and address of employer: Faculty of Law, University of Niš, Serbia.

Title of qualifications awarded: PhD thesis title: "Economic Analysis of Alternative Dispute Resolution in Civil Matters", Faculty of Law University of Belgrade, Serbia; Master's thesis title: "Economic Analysis of Tort Law", Faculty of Law University of Belgrade, Serbia.

Personal skills and competences: good researcher, creative and methodical.

Social skills and competences: intercultural skills acquired through participation in various national and international summer schools, seminars, conferences and projects.

Membership and activities in professional associations: one of the founder and Board member of the Serbian Law and Economics Association (SLEA); accredited mediator of the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Serbia and member of the Serbian National Association of Mediators.

Participation in international or domestic scientific conferences: more than 15.

Participation in international or domestic projects: seven projects.

Books and articles: Aleksandar Mojašević, Economic Analysis of Mediation: Theoretical-Empirical Study, University of Niš, Publication Centre, Faculty of Law, Niš, 2014. ISBN 978-86-7148-182-3; Ljubica Nikolić, Aleksandar Mojašević, Economics for Lawyers, Medinvest, Niš, 2016. ISBN 978-86-88415-69-9; author/co-author of more than 40 articles primarily in the field of Law and Economics.

English: understanding, speaking and writing (C1).

P7 – Public Policy Secretariat Government of the Republic of Serbia

Kekic Ninoslav, Assistant Director in the Public Policy Secretariat of the Republic of Serbia (Sector for Quality Assurance of Public Policies)

He was in charge of coordination of the pilot projects (together with his colleague from the Sector, Ms Diana Paunovic) on the Public Policy Secretariat's side. During the process he closely cooperated with the HSI PO Ms Svetlana Kijevcanin, who was spending four days a week in the PPS during the pilots.

Ninoslav Kekic has broad experience with and extensive knowledge of government policies and various legal frameworks, particularly in the areas of: public policy development, regulatory reform and the improvement of the legislative process, business environment and competitiveness, development of the SME sector and cooperatives, social economy, and regional development. He has participated in the development of numerous analyses, national strategic documents, and regulations, among which the most important ones are: the Strategy for the Regulatory Reform and Improvement of the System of Public Policy Management 2016-2020, the National Programme for Countering Shadow Economy, the Programme of Economic Reforms 2017-2019, the Strategy for Support to the Development of the SMEE and Competitiveness with the Action Plan, the Law on Cooperatives, the Labour Law, the Draft Law on Social Entrepreneurship and the Draft Law on Crafts, the Law on Deadlines for Defrayment of Money Liabilities in Commercial Transactions, as well as pertinent documents in fields of regional development and waste management.

Before working in the state administration, he had been working as legal expert at various projects in the area of enhancement of the business environment, cooperatives, social economy and social innovations, and labour law issues. His longest employment had been at UN agencies' projects.

At present he is the coordinator of numerous projects, the most significant among them being the Establishment of the Single Registry of Administrative Procedures and Other Business Conditions.

He is a member of many task forces and expert groups, some of them being: the Expert Group on Social Entrepreneurship of the European Commission (GECES), the Council for Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises, Entrepreneurship and Competitiveness of the Government of the Republic of Serbia, the Expert Group of the Coordinating Body for Activities aimed at Countering Shadow Economy, the Negotiation Group 11 – Agriculture and Rural Development, and the Negotiation Group 20 – Entrepreneurship and Industrial Policy.

Todorovic Jelena, born in 1985, graduated Faculty of Law University of Belgrade, Republic of Serbia in 2011. Jelena is expert advisor in Public Policy Secretariat of the Government of Serbia (PPS), Sector for Planning Support, Public Policy Coordination and Monitoring. Jelena has been working in PPS since its establishment in April 2014, as an institution in charge of the reform of policy making in the public administration. She previously worked at the Government Office for the Regulatory Reform and Regulatory Impact Assessment.

She participated in preparation of the regulation on policy planning in Serbia. She also participated in preparation and monitoring of the implementation of several important strategies and programs adopted by the Government of Serbia, mainly in the area of regulatory, economic and science reforms. She has an active role in preparation Research and innovation Strategy for Smart specialization of the Republic of Serbia. Also participate in the development of the Action Plan for the Implementation of the Government Programme.

She speaks English, and has basic knowledge of French and Spanish.

P8 – Foundation for the Advancement of Economics

Vuksanovic Nemanja graduated in June 2013, as the best student of the Economic analysis and policy modul. He completed his master studies in July 2015, after successfully defended master thesis in the area of Economics of Education. PhD studies enrolled in October 2015 at the Faculty of Economics in Belgrade, majoring in Economics. He works at the Faculty of Economics in Belgrade since 2014, performing exercises on the following subjects: Introduction to economics and Modern Economic Systems. The main areas of interest and research: Economics of Education and Institutional Economics. Since 2016 he is a research fellow at the Foundation for the Advancement of Economics. Also, he is a member of the Society for Institutional and organizational economics. He has been involved in a number of research projects financed by the Ministry of education, science and technology of Republic of Serbia, European Union, and World Bank.

P10 – SeConS Development Initiative Group

Vukovic Olivera is an executive director at SeConS. She is sociologist from Belgrade with an academic background and extensive experience in policy oriented research. She has regional experience since she has lived and worked in Bosnia and Herzegovina for three years, as well as in Montenegro where she worked for different clients. She has significant experience in cooperation with international institutions (such as, DFID, UNDP, IOM, UNFPA, UNW, SDC, etc.), national and local governments, institutions and civil society organizations.

Key competences: Program management and quality assurance, Development of training curricula and training delivery, Monitoring and evaluation of processes, projects and policies, Design of quantitative and qualitative surveys, Preparation of analytical reports, Various forms of policy analysis

Key fields of expertise: Social exclusion, social policy and social protection, Decentralization of social policy, PCM, Capacity development of CSO and municipality departments, Strategic planning, Socio-economic development